

VIDEO STORYBOARD
Beyond the Mountain Range: A Legacy Through Generations
Short Documentary | Duration: 4:30 - 5:00 | Style: Observational + Cinematic Voiceover

GROUP MEMBER ASSIGNMENTS

Member	Scene / Role	Voiceover / On-screen Task
Trexie Capeña	Scene 1 - Opening (0:00-0:30)	VO: Before the music begins...
Selwyn Myles Ocoy	Scene 2 - What is Kaamulan (0:30-1:10)	VO: In Bukidnon, Kaamulan is more than a festival...
Rechael Antonette Salise (Tonet)	Scene 3 - The People (1:10-2:00)	Interview VO: This is who we are...
Jade Bryan Salahag	Scene 3 - The People (1:10-2:00)	VO: For many, Kaamulan is not just an event...
Jericho Ayunar	Scene 4 - Traditions & Performances (2:00-2:50) Scene 7 - Closing (4:20-5:00)	VO: "Every movement has meaning..." Closing VO narration
Thrie Jie Barcina	Scene 5 - Festival Life (2:50-3:40)	VO: "Beyond the stage, Kaamulan lives..."
Ailyn Cabañas	Scene 6 - Unity (3:40-4:20)	VO: "In diversity, there is unity..."
Bayron	Camera Operator - Scenes 1 & 2	Drone/wide shots, tracking shot
Cagampang	Camera Operator - Scenes 3 & 4	Close-ups, low-angle, slow motion
Estenzo	Camera Operator - Scene 5	Handheld immersive shots
Cadellenia	Camera Operator - Scene 6	Group shots, candid photography
Lanzaderas	Camera Operator - Scene 7 / BTS	Sunset slow-motion, final shots

SCENE-BY-SCENE STORYBOARD

SCENE 1 | OPENING | 0:00 - 0:30

■ VISUALS / SHOTS

- Sunrise over Bukidnon mountains • Empty festival grounds (still, peaceful)
- Vendors setting up their stalls • Close-up: performer's hands arranging beads & fabric

■ CAMERA ANGLES

- Wide Shot / Drone shot - mountain sunrise • Establishing Shot - empty grounds • Medium Shot - vendors setting up • Extreme Close-Up - hands, beads, costume fabric

■ AUDIO

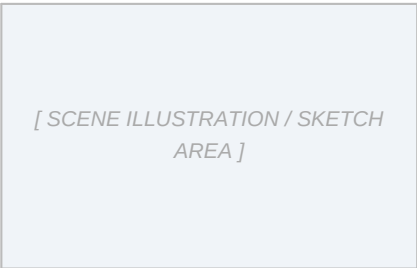

- Natural ambient sounds - birds chirping
- Soft tribal music fades in slowly • No dialogue

■ VOICEOVER (Trexie Capeña):

"Before the music begins... before the crowd arrives... Kaamulan already lives in the hands of those who prepare for it."

■ NOTES: Set a calm, anticipatory mood. Sunrise should be golden hour. Slow fade-in on music.

SCENE 2 | WHAT IS KAAMULAN | 0:30 - 1:10

■ VISUALS / SHOTS

- Festival entrance signage / arch • Crowd slowly gathering and filling the venue • Smiling faces, people waving at camera • Wide shot of the full festival grounds

■ CAMERA ANGLES

- Medium Shot - entrance signage • Tracking Shot - walking into the crowd (immersive POV) • Pan Shot - sweeping across the crowd • Close-Up - smiling faces, waving

■ AUDIO

- Ambient crowd sounds - cheering, laughter
- Upbeat traditional music continues • Chatter of gathering people

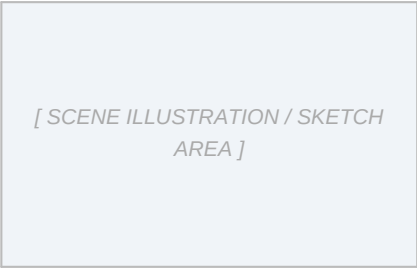

■ VOICEOVER (Selwyn Myles Ocoy):

"In Bukidnon, Kaamulan is more than a festival. It is a gathering--of tribes, of stories, of identity. A celebration of heritage that continues to live through generations."

■ ON-SCREEN TEXT: Kaamulan Festival | Bukidnon, Philippines

■ NOTES: On-screen text appears as tracking shot enters the crowd. Keep crowd energy joyful.

SCENE 3 | THE PEOPLE | 1:10 - 2:00

■ VISUALS / SHOTS

- Close-ups of performers' faces showing emotion • Elders seated, watching performances • Children dressed in traditional tribal attire • Candid moments of families and community

■ CAMERA ANGLES

- Extreme Close-Up - performer faces, emotions • Medium Shot - elders observing the performance • Wide Shot - children in traditional attire • Candid/Observational - natural unposed moments

■ AUDIO

- Natural chatter and laughter from crowd • Soft background music • Interview snippets
- Tonet's spoken words

■ VOICEOVER (Rechael Antonette Salise (interview) + Jade Bryan Salahag (VO)):

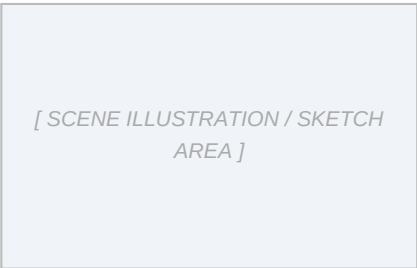

"For many, Kaamulan is not just an event... It is memory, identity, and pride carried through time."

■ INTERVIEW LINE:

"This is who we are. This is our culture."

■ NOTES: Interview by Tonet; VO by Jade. Interview should feel sincere and natural. Capture genuine emotions.

SCENE 4 | TRADITIONS & PERFORMANCES | 2:00 - 2:50

■ VISUALS / SHOTS

- Tribal dances -- mix of slow motion and real-time footage
- Drummers and traditional musicians performing
- Ritual performances and ceremonial displays
- Colorful costumes in motion

■ CAMERA ANGLES

- Low-Angle Shot - dancers to convey power & grandeur
- Slow Motion - capture emotion in dance movements
- Close-Up - drummers' hands and instruments
- Wide Shot - full performance stage overview
- Medium Tracking Shot - following a dancer

■ AUDIO

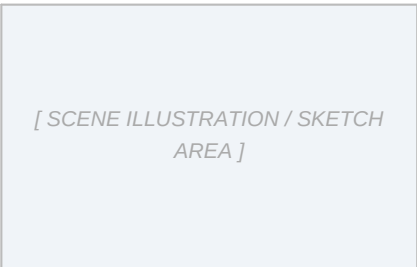

- Live drum beat
- Let them breathe
- Voiceover; music
- Storyteller heard
- Performance and instruments)

■ VOICEOVER (Jericho Ayunar):

"Every movement has meaning. Every rhythm tells a story."

■ NOTES: Minimal VO -- let the music & visuals carry this scene. Slow motion moments should be emotionally impactful.

SCENE 5 | FESTIVAL LIFE | 2:50 - 3:40

■ VISUALS / SHOTS

- Food vendors cooking traditional Bukidnon dishes
- Close-ups of colorful local food and delicacies
- People eating together, laughing
- Crafts, souvenirs, and artisanal stalls

■ CAMERA ANGLES

- Handheld Camera - creates immersive, documentary feel
- Close-Up - food being cooked and plated
- Medium Shot - people enjoying meals together
- Casual Pan - across souvenir and craft stalls

■ AUDIO

- Sizzling soun
- Noise, laughter
- Warm background
- Natural ambie
- Sounds

■ VOICEOVER (Thrie Jie Barcina):

"Beyond the stage, Kaamulan lives in everyday moments-- shared meals, warm laughter, and connections that bring people closer."

■ NOTES: Handheld style gives a candid, warm feel. Show the human side of the festival beyond performances.

SCENE 6 | UNITY | 3:40 - 4:20

■ VISUALS / SHOTS

- Members of different tribes interacting warmly
- Group performances featuring multiple tribes
- Candid smiles, handshakes, embraces
- Wide shots of diverse crowd united in celebration

■ CAMERA ANGLES

- Medium Shot - different tribes in conversation
- Wide Shot - group performance on stage
- Close-Up - candid smiles and joyful expressions
- Slow Pan - across the unified crowd

■ AUDIO

- Soft uplifting
- Crowd energy
- Natural ambie
- Sounds

■ VOICEOVER (Ailyn Cabañas):

"In diversity, there is unity. Different traditions, different stories-- gathered into one celebration of culture and belonging."

■ NOTES: Show genuine connections. Capture moments of different tribes coming together -- this is the heart of the documentary.

SCENE 7 | CLOSING | 4:20 - 5:00

■ VISUALS / SHOTS

• Sunset over the festival grounds • People slowly leaving -- backs to camera, walking away • Final slow-motion smiles and waves to camera • Last wide shot: empty grounds as sun sets

■ CAMERA ANGLES

• Wide Shot / Drone - sunset over festival • Silhouette Shot - people leaving against sunset • Slow Motion Close-Up - final smiles, waves • Fade to Black - gradual, peaceful ending

■ AUDIO

• Music softens and fades out • Natural sounds return • Silence before

■ VOICEOVER (Jericho Ayunar):

"When the celebration ends, Kaamulan does not fade. It remains--in the stories we remember... and the culture we continue to carry forward."

■ NOTES: Emotional, reflective close. Slow fade to black. End card: title of documentary + group names.

PRODUCTION NOTES & REMINDERS

Item	Details
Document Title	Beyond the Mountain Range: A Legacy Through Generations
Total Duration	4:30 - 5:00 minutes
Style	Observational Documentary + Cinematic Voiceover
Total Scenes	7 Scenes
Total Members	13 members (7 VO/on-screen, 5 camera operators + 1 dual-role)
Submission Format	High-quality PDF - Filename: LastName-FirstName-SectionCode-C3-Storyboard
Platform Suggestion	Canva / Boords / Milanote - add illustrations to each scene's sketch area
Reminder	Add actual scene sketches/illustrations in each scene's illustration box before submission